Gospel: John 10:1-10

Collect: O God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, make us perfect in every good work to do your will, and work in us that which is well-pleasing in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Announcements

To our dear friends in ACPC; Our heartfelt thanks to all of you who held us in prayer, sent cards, and donations in memory of Gordon's Mom. Your love gave us strength and the presence of the Lord still gives us the courage and endurance as Gord continues the care for his Dad and as I recover from surgery. You are all such a blessing Gordon, Veronica & family

St. James' thanks everyone from all the congregations who helped to make the ACPC combined service a success. The service was inspiring; the food delightful; and the fellowship most enjoyable. The congregation of St. James' was very happy to welcome the rest of ACPC to our church on the hill. We are looking forward to the next combined service which should take place in July. Thanks again to everybody.

Weekly Reflections

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ..." ACTS 2:38

The word "repent" means to turn from sin, to change our actions. When it comes to change, do we take responsibility for change or do we think that others have to change instead? Change that is permanent comes from within, we must take control and be disciplined. Remember though that we are not alone, Jesus is there to help lighten the load.

That as we struggle to live a faith-filled life, we recognize we are not alone. Jesus is there to help lighten the load.
